Certificate of Compliance

We are pleased to inform you that the product, MacuPrime (Lot no.: C2102824), has successfully passed our stability testing programme.

To meet the standards of Supplement Certified Ltd.'s stability programme, each bioactive ingredient analysed in our laboratory must retain 100 % of its declared label claim throughout the testing period. In the case of MacuPrime, the measured bioactive ingredients —lutein, zeaxanthin, and meso-zeaxanthin— all demonstrated stability over the entire programme duration. Further detail regarding our stability testing programme is provided below:

- Stability analysis term is three year from product opening (Month 0).
- Each bioactive ingredient must measure ≥ 100 % of label claim at each analysis timepoint.[1]
- Product is stored at a constant 25 °C and 60 % relative humidity.[2]

Below, please find the Certificate of Analysis (CoA) IDs in support of the successful passing of the stability programme:

- CoA-22-00-38 – M0
- CoA-22-01-13 – M6
- CoA-23-00-67.0 – M12
- CoA-23-01-61.0 – M18
- CoA-24-00-65.0 – M24
- CoA-24-01-84.1 – M30
- CoA-25-00-56.0 – M34

[1] Although dietary supplements are globally recognized as 'foods', Supplement Certified Ltd and its partners believe supplements (like medicines) should deliver what is outlined on the label. As such, the company listed on this Certificate has contracted Supplement Certified to assess the stability and coherence to the label claim of the requested bioactive(s).

[2] Constant 25 °C and 60 % relative humidity conditions are defined by the International Council for Harmonisation of Technical Requirements for Pharmaceuticals for Human Use (ICH) and correspond to Zone II (subtropical and Mediterranean climates). Examples of countries assigned to Climate Zone II are the USA, France, China and Australia.

All test reports have been submitted to the company. Please contact Supplement Certified to confirm certificate validity. It is prohibited to copy or partially reproduce for an improper purpose, falsify, counterfeit or tamper with this certificate.
